

Decalogue

for educator working with adults disadvantages

1 Respect:
Respect your students as full-fledged adults with unique experiences, abilities, and perspectives.

2 Empathy:
Seek to understand and consider the individual needs, challenges, and goals of your students.

3 Patience:
Remember that learning is a process that takes time and each student progresses at their own pace.

4 Motivation:
Help your students find and nurture intrinsic motivation to learn.

5 Creativity:
Use a variety of teaching methods to suit students' different learning styles and interests.

6 Support:
Provide your students with support, both educational and personal, that they can turn to you for.

7 Professionalism:
Always act professionally by showing your students that they are being taken seriously and with respect.

8 Open to change:
Be flexible and ready to adjust your learning plans based on the needs and progress of your students.

9 Personal development:
Keep learning, improve your teaching skills and always look for new ways to improve your work.

10 Give Space:
Teach your students to be independent and active learners by encouraging them to reflect, ask questions, and do research on their own.